

Conference on

Understanding, Attitudes and Behaviour regarding Old-Age Provision

November 15/16, 2022, in Mannheim, Germany

This conference brings together researchers from business education, economics, and related disciplines, who work on topics linked to old-age provision. The conference is part of the project "Verständnis und Haltungen zur Altersvorsorge in Deutschland (VHAlt)".
(www.vhalt.de)

Day 1: Academic Workshop (in English)

Tuesday, November 15, 2022

- on site only (University of Mannheim in B6, 30-32, Bauteil E-F, Room 008) –

- 12:15 Registration
- 12:45 Welcome Day 1
- 13:00 Keynote by David Leiser (Ben Gurion University of the Negev & Center for Pension, Insurance and Economic Psychology):
All people are NOT created equal. What personality traits stymie the deployment of financial literacy and potential consequences for the pension discourse.
- 13:45 Marlene Haupt (Ravensburg-Weingarten University of Applied Sciences):
A Systematic Review on the Effect of Pension Communication on Knowledge, Attitudes, and Behavior
- 14:15 Daniel Moosdorf (University of Marburg):
(In)secure and (Mis)informed – Measurement of pension knowledge and its sociodemographic distribution
- 14:45 Break
- 15:15 Carmen Sainz Villalba (Max Planck Institute for Tax Law and Public Finance):
How does Knowledge Affect Paternalism Preferences for Savings Plans Policies?
- 15:45 Maj-Britt Sterba (University of Konstanz):
Between Beveridge and Bismarck: Preferences for Redistribution through Public Pensions Economics
- 16:15 Elias Naumann (GESIS Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences & MZES Uni Mannheim):
The Ethnic Penalty in Welfare Deservingness – a Factorial Survey Experiment on Welfare Chauvinism in Pension Attitudes in Germany
- 16:45 Break
- 17:15 Caroline Knebel (ZEW Mannheim):
Fluctuations in Pension Income: Results and Implications
- 17:45 Luisa Wallossek (LMU Munich):
Opt-in or Opt-out? The Effect of Defaults on Public Pension Enrollment
- 18:15 Ruth Maria Schüler (German Economic Institute (IW)):
Pension Concerns in Germany: Determinants and Normative Implications
- 18:45 Wrap-Up Day 1
- 19:30 Informal Part: Joint Dinner

VHAlt wird gefördert durch:

Conference on

Understanding, Attitudes and Behaviour regarding Old-Age Provision

November 15/16, 2022, in Mannheim, Germany

Day 2: VHAIt-Conference (in German)

Wednesday, November 16, 2022

- on site and online (University of Mannheim in B6, 30-32, Bauteil E-F, Room 008) -

- 08:30 Registration
- 09:00 Presentation of the VHAIt-Project by Carmela Aprea (University of Mannheim) and Silke Übelmesser (Friedrich Schiller University Jena)
- 09:45 Keynote by Elsa Fornero (University of Turin & Center for Research on Pensions and Welfare Policies): Financial literacy as an essential ingredient for successful economic reforms (in English)
- 10:30 Short Break
- 10:45 Keynote by Axel Börsch-Supan (Technical University Munich & Munich Center for the Economics of Aging): Verständnis und Haltungen zu Rentenreformen in Europa
- 11:30 Panel Discussion „Zukunft der Rente - Rente der Zukunft“ with
- Isolde Mischke-Flach (D&M Frankfurter Finanzexpertinnen)
 - Fabian Dittrich (Deutsches Institut für Altersvorsorge)
 - Jürgen Stellflug (Verbraucherkommission des Landes Baden-Württemberg)
 - Marlene Haupt (Ravensburg-Weingarten University of Applied Sciences)
 - Felix Wilke (Ernst-Abbe-Hochschule Jena)
 - Simon Schöbel (InvestScience)
- Moderator: Angela Schrödelsecker (Rhein-Neckar-TV)
- 12:30 Wrap Up Day 2 and Buffet Lunch

Contact:

For further information, please visit the conference website or send an email to info@vhalt.de.

Organisers:

Chair of Economic and Business Education at the University of Mannheim (Prof. Aprea)
& Chair of Public Finance at the Friedrich Schiller University Jena (Prof. Übelmesser)

Please note:

There is an opportunity to participate in the MIFE conference, which will take place in Mannheim, November 16-18. Please see the following website for further information.

VHAIt wird gefördert durch:

